

Asian American Psychological Association Annual Convention

Toronto, Ontario, Canada

August 6, 2003

“Asian American Psychology: Bridging Research & Theory with Practice & Policy”

Call for Proposals: Poster Sessions

The Asian American Psychological Association (AAPA) invites submissions of proposals for a poster session at the AAPA 2003 Annual Convention to be held in Toronto, Ontario, Canada on Wednesday, August 6, 2003. The theme is "Asian American Psychology: Bridging Research & theory with Practice and Policy."

All proposals addressing issues related to Asian American psychological issues will be considered. Special attention will be given to proposals that are related to the Convention theme. In particular, proposals addressing interdisciplinary collaboration and connections between theory, research, practice, and policy topics are particularly sought. Also, the AAPA's Division on Women seeks proposals related to Asian American women for consideration for the DoW sponsored travel awards. Proposals from graduate and undergraduate students are encouraged.

A prize and certificate will be presented to the best poster at the AAPA Banquet, which follows the Convention. Interested presenters should refer to the September 2002 issue of the APA Monitor for details regarding preparation for poster presentation.

These guidelines and timelines should be followed:

1. Proposals should be submitted by March 24, 2003. Coordinating presenters will be notified of the status of their presentation by the review committee by email on or before April 21, 2003.
2. Coordinating presenters will be notified by email upon receipt of their proposal.
3. Submit, via email, a program proposal that includes
 - a. a 500- to 750 -word summary AND
 - b. a 100-word abstract.
4. Submit, via email, a contact information sheet containing:
 - a. Coordinating presenter's name, degree, affiliation, address, email address and telephone
 - b. Additional presenters' names, degrees, and affiliations.
5. MS Word attachments or RTF files for the proposal are preferred.
6. Anonymous reviews will be used. Please do not refer to presenters by name within the text of the summary or abstract.

Proposals should be sent via email to: Bryan S. K. Kim, Ph.D. at bkim@education.ucsb.edu or Arpana G. Inman, Ph.D. at agi2@lehigh.edu. Questions or requests for additional information also can be sent to these email addresses.
