

Student Award Winner Dorian Tsosie, Junior Majoring in Life Sciences

Dorian Tsosie has demonstrated his dedication to cultural diversity by his commitment to volunteerism at ASU and in the community at large. He is an active member of the Native American Events Committee (NAEC) and he is President of the Native American Student Organization (NASO).

He serves on the Cultural Advisory Committee at the West campus. He has worked with NAEC, NASO, Chand (Eid) Mell, powwows at Tempe and at the West campus, the World Vision Experience: Aids Exhibit, the 2007 African Festival, Banner Thunderbird Medical Center, the Paradise Education Center, and PIR NASCAR.”

“Dorian is a Romanian/Native American who is pursuing a degree in Life Science. He wants to work with humanitarian aid organizations after he receives his degree in medicine. He understands the importance of service and is dedicating his life to helping others.”

~excerpts from a nomination from Marcia Bell and Dennis Eagleman on behalf of the Native American Events Committee

The Campus Environment Team works to promote civility, justice, diversity, respect for all individuals, freedom of expression and academic inquiry, and the pursuit of individual goals without interference from discriminatory harassment.